

Freedom of Information Act Release Mistakenly Includes US Gov't. Mind Control Documentation

The documents themselves are quite bizarre and, honestly, despite reports dismissing them, it is worth remembering that this is exactly what the CIA was working on for years during MKULTRA. That program was supposed to have been shut down after the Church Hearings and other congressional hearings exposed all of the CIA's clandestine activities at the time many that violated human rights including experimentation on patients and the American population without their knowledge.
