

How to Manifest by Knowing the Holographic Nature of Reality

Researcher Billy Carson says you can manifest more if you understand how reality works

Everyone wants to know how to better manifest. And although there are many books, courses, and workshops that explain just how to do it, there is one essential ingredient that we are missing, says 4biddenknowledge founder and researcher Billy Carson.

By discovering how integral fractals are to our universe, Carson married this idea with another: The Holographic Universe, made popular by the late Michael Talbot and came up with some astounding findings that boil down to one thing...

We are walking, talking, living manifesting machines!

The equations, he says don't lie!

You've GOT to hear what Carson has to say as it relates to why billions of people though faithful in their prayer and meditation practices, neglect to manifest what they are asking for or desire.
