

Create More Peace & Happiness in These Challenging Times With This Healing Mantra

Video Source: chakraboosters

Hello Dear Ones, I've created another healing music video, and this time, I put the mantra-based lyrics right on the video.

This beautiful song (above) is called Lokah Samastha Sukhino Bhavantu, which translates loosely into "may all beings everywhere be happy, peaceful and free." It's from my Chakra Love album which you can get here for just $11.11.

Lokah Samastha Sukhino Bhavantu is one of the most powerful and popular mantras in the world of yoga, and this video captures it's essence by showing happy people from across the globe. I dare you to watch it and not smile. Thankfully, happiness is truly contagious!

You can create a really fun and healing practice for yourself by singing along to the song/music video frequently until the positive mantra and related lyrics are looping through your mind and heart.

Here are the lyrics again (they are also in the video above):

Lokah Samastah Sukhino Bhavantu (4x)

Om Shanti Om Shanti

Om Shanti Om (2x)

May everyone everywhere be happy

May everyone be free

May everything I think and say and do

Create a world of peace

Lokah Samastah Sukhino Bhavantu (4x)

Om Shanti Om Shanti

Om Shanti Om (2x)

May everyone everywhere be happy

May everyone be free

May everything I think and say and do

Create a world of peace (2x)

Om Shanti Om Shanti

Om Shanti Om

Love and blessings,

Vicki
