

Forget “Star Wars” – New Evidence Shows A Galactic Battle May Be Real and Happening Right Under Your Feet!

Alexis chats with Linda Moulton Howe and Barbara Lamb about a Real Life “Galactic War!”

Here’s what you need to know.

Barbara Lamb and Linda Moulton Howe –
Feb. 2017

They may be pretty, petite, and polite, but don’t let their appearance fool you. Linda Moulton Howe and Barbara Lamb are two of the most hard-hitting and well researched in the field of UFOlogy!

Linda, an Emmy award-winning producer, researcher, and the woman who in 1980 broke the story about mysterious cattle mutilations and Barbara, who boasts over 3,000 regressions of individuals, many of which feel themselves to be human-alien hybrids have a lot to share with the world about just what's going on underneath the surface of our oh-so-normal reality.

In this, my 2nd interview with Linda (watch our first) and 3rd with Barbara (hear our most recent), we brought the two together (I call them the "Yin and Yang" of the ET/UFO phenomenon) to discuss what may just be the biggest war we've NEVER heard about – A Galactic War waged between our so-called "secret government" and that of the non-human kind (aka, ET's).

Linda, in her usual fashion darted into the room just prior to the filming of our interview, bursting with enthusiasm. "We have to talk about the big booms!" she said. I had planned on discussing crop circles. A theme I thought the two could easily navigate, given their multitude of excursions and discoveries few would have stumbled upon.

But that was not to be the theme today. We had to discuss the BIG booms that people have been reporting as commonplace, all over the planet in earnest since 2011.

Linda had some new information to share and Barbara was fully on-board with shifting the proposed subject for our interview.

Barbara Lamb describes her recollection of hearing “BIG BOOMS” during our filming on-location in Los Angeles.

So I switched gears quickly, given the fair measure of urgency Linda conveyed. She firmly believes that the “booms” that many have been hearing since 2011 are indicative of a possible war – a “Galactic War” as she put it, that is currently being waged underground. A war that is being fought between – you guessed it – humans and ET’s!

Sound a little too Star Wars-ish? Well, stick around and watch this in-depth interview with Linda and Barbara to find out just what may be happening right underneath our feet.

Postscript – As if perfectly on cue, well into our interview we had our own little “boom” experience! Synchronistic to be sure. Tune in to find out what happened!
