Astrology Overview for September 03-09, 2018

What an action packed week this is! It begins with Mercury coming out of shadow, returning to the place where the retrograde began on 26th July, and any creative strands can finally start to fire forwards.

There is though a Quarter Moon on Monday in the sign of Gemini. This can see the lighter side of communication clash with the more precise side of the Sun in Virgo. Each zodiac sign will be affected differently by this, and please watch your video below for your personal insight.

By Thursday Mercury returns to Virgo, and Saturn ends a 5.5 month retrograde. The two, along with Uranus forge a Grand Earth Trine, perfect to trigger new ideas which are grounded in reality and seek tangible results and yet with a slice of imagination.

Jupiter also continues to angle brilliantly well to Pluto. This is one of the most important of all planetary aspects and can see something fall into place quite naturally.

Relationships however, could prove more challenging. With Venus and Mars clashing, finding the right balance between feminine and masculine is going to be the key. Venus is in its home zone until Saturday, of Libra, and will relish diplomacy. Mars in Capricorn though exalted can be too driven, too brash. Something has to give.

Mind by Sunday, Venus travels into Scorpio, where it gets uber sensual and intense but goes opposite Uranus. This could spark some surprise attractions, or a need for space, each of our personal circumstances will inform this.
