Horoscopes Monday 13th March 2017

Aries 21 March – 20 April

With the potent energies of Pluto angling towards Jupiter and Uranus, it could seem that your freedom is curtailed by responsibilities or an ambition that can prove compelling. Over coming weeks it may appear that you have no option but to do what you have to. But Mercury entering your sign from today may shift your focus, and this can give you some crucial leeway, Aries.

Taurus 21 April – 21 May

You may find yourself busy with various community projects, events or social plans. But the focus on a more private sector of your chart intensifies from today and as a result, you could find it easier to connect with your feelings and to talk about them if necessary. This can be vital if you need to make a decision that could take you out of your comfort zone and into new territory.

Gemini 22 May – 21 June

As Mercury your personal planet glides into Aries from today, it can add extra sparkle to social events and lively occasions, as well as encouraging you to move in new circles. Mind, with a powerful focus in play you can also feel motivated to pool resources and invite key others on board, especially if they have the right experience to aid you with a valued project Gemini.

Cancer 22 June – 23 July

It can seem that if someone would change their attitude, life could be much easier for you. But would this really be the case Cancer? It may be that your approach to them has been too easygoing and that by being open about your feelings you could see a shift occur. If you feel ready to step up and take control of this situation, doing so may well alter things for the better.

Leo 24 July – 23 August

You may find that a focus on your job or regarding certain responsibilities seem to keep you away from more leisurely activities, which could mean that you miss out on social opportunities. However, it could be that you have become inadvertently caught up in the details of such matters to the detriment of other issues, and that allowing yourself some latitude would be kinder to you.

Virgo 24 August – 23 September

As Mercury your leading planet, moves into Aries and a sensitive sector from today, the coming weeks can allow you a glimpse into the deeper workings of your subconscious mind which could prove very illuminating. Indeed, your horoscope

Libra 24 September – 23 October

The Sun in your lifestyle sector can coincide with a focus on day-to-day affairs which you might find quite settling. Compared to other more trying issues which could revolve around a domestic matter, the tried and trusted may boost your spirits. You might be taking family affairs too seriously though, causing unnecessary pressure when discussing them could ease things, Libra.

Scorpio 24 October – 22 November

If someone insists that you follow their lead this might not sit well with you. Therefore, it may be time to let them know how you feel. The current picture can be a call to focus on what works for you, which might involve some soul searching. If you sense that you need the freedom to make your own decisions Scorpio, then gently detaching from their influence can be a good thing.

Sagittarius 23 November – 21 December

As your planet of relating moves into your sector of leisure and creativity, someone may encourage you to explore interests that you might well relish. The only issue that may hold you back is cost Archer, but with some lateral thinking you can work this out.

Capricorn 22 December – 20 January

You may feel as though you can achieve far more by keeping a firm grip on family affairs, key plans and big ambitions. But is this really true? If you can gain a degree of detachment around such matters, then progress may soon be made, Capricorn.

Aquarius 21 January – 19 February

The coming weeks can see you keen to get involved, whether it is a group, club or online forum that attracts your attention. But the bigger picture can encourage you to let go of an issue that may have been on your mind for some time. If you have been deeply involved with this, then it could prevent you from moving on with other areas of your life and that would be a shame.

Pisces 20 February – 20 March

As Mercury moves into your sector of values and finances, you may feel moved to plan ahead regarding those important purchases, and this can give you a chance to enjoy the feeling of control that doing so could bring. Indeed, with Venus rewinding in this same sector, you may feel that an overhaul is due. This can be an excellent idea, especially if it allows you to invest wisely.
