Horoscopes Monday 19th March 2018

Aries 21 March – 20 April

With a major focus on your sign, you may feel like taking a more independent stance when it comes to important matters. Nevertheless, potent influences in the topmost sector of your chart suggest it may help you to toe the line and handle those key tasks and responsibilities. If you need to let off steam, then consider a good walk or a good workout when you have the chance.

Taurus 21 April – 21 May

You may feel restless without really understanding why Taurus. If so, it is likely down to the Moon's connection with electric Uranus. With the Moon in a subtle sector of your chart, impulsive feelings can lead the way, encouraging you to sidestep logic. If you find yourself resisting tasks that may secure your future, it can be worth pushing yourself to get them done.

Gemini 22 May – 21 June

Much as you might enjoy the company of your friends, they could prove something of a distraction over coming days, especially if you have important things to attend to. At the same time, if what you are dealing with is rather intense, then accepting an invite for a coffee and a chat may be a way to unwind and feel rejuvenated. It's likely all a question of balance Gemini.

Cancer 22 June – 23 July

Any plans or arrangements made, particularly those relating to a personal ambition or goal, could seem less assured than they were. It may be that you change your mind on the spur of the moment, or that other factors require you to reconsider your plans. It's also possible that certain people in your life could expect a lot from you, and this too might be something to consider.

Leo 24 July – 23 August

There's quite a contrast between the fun and exciting things you might like to do, and the reality of the coming days and the work you need to attend to. Your horoscope suggests that you could easily delegate some of your tasks and enjoy a respite. With careful planning, you may have more options open to you than you thought, enabling you to do more of the activities you love.

Virgo 24 August – 23 September

A desire for instant satisfaction could overrule the innate understanding that to reap positive rewards from a project or relationship usually takes time. As the Moon connects with edgy Uranus in an intense sector of your chart, you may find it difficult to wait for what you want. Even so Virgo, if you act on impulse something could be spoilt that is developing quite nicely.

Libra 24 September – 23 October

You may need to use diplomacy Libra, as an awkward blend of energies in your sector of relating suggests that others could be impulsive or behave in a way that may be frustrating. This may not sit well with you if you have a lot to contend with, or if you have made special arrangements that you can't easily change. A firm but tactful approach may be necessary here.

Scorpio 24 October – 22 November

You may be trying to do your best Scorpio, but unexpected disruptions could make it difficult to accomplish as much as you would like. This could put you in a tricky situation if you have made a promise or have a deadline to contend with. However, if you can discuss the situation as soon as possible, those involved could prove accommodating by giving you that little bit more leeway.

Sagittarius 23 November – 21 December

If you have worked hard to get your finances in order or to save some extra cash, then go easy over the next day or so. With the Moon aligning with impulsive Uranus in your leisure sector, you may be tempted to splurge on something on the spur of the moment. It could be more difficult to control spending, so giving yourself a firm limit might help you avoid this Archer.

Capricorn 22 December – 20 January

You may need to respond to a minor family matter Capricorn, which could take you away from more pressing responsibilities. Nevertheless, making time for those involved and handling the situation with good grace can keep those on the home front happy. In addition, finding a way to balance your own plans with domestic needs and tasks could enhance bonds with close ones.

Aquarius 21 January – 19 February

You could inadvertently blurt out something you had intended to keep a secret Aquarius. If you do though, would this be so bad? It is possible that the pressure of keeping certain matters to yourself may have caused you to feel uneasy, though you might not have acknowledged this to yourself. Sometimes such accidents can serve a useful purpose if they bring a sense of relief.

Pisces 20 February – 20 March

You could find a friend to be rather conservative in their outlook on certain important issues, while you may have a different and more radical perspective. This could put you at odds with them, especially if you are ready to be completely honest about your real feelings. Being true to your beliefs could prove very empowering though, even if their opinion of you does change.
