Horoscopes Monday 1st August 2016

Aries 21 March – 20 April

Although you may be busy, the Moon in the sign of Cancer can encourage a trip down memory lane. A reunion can be a possibility and one that could be enjoyable. In addition, with the Moon's connection with Jupiter you might call to arrange a healing massage or spa treatment. By clearing the must do things first, then you can hopefully prioritise your own needs.

Taurus 21 April – 21 May

The present picture suggests that you may benefit from a more detached approach when it comes to making key decisions. Should anyone attempt to sway your opinion, you'd be best to stick with what feels right to you. Even so, a positive lunar tie suggests that coffee with a friend or even a mini-outing can add an upbeat note to the day's proceedings, Taurus.

Gemini 22 May – 21 June

The next day or so can be the start of a new and more progressive phase as Mars gets ready to move into your sector of relating. Although this influence can often stir up a more competitive vibe, if it sees you more confident about engaging with others, this can be a good thing. Also, if you are single, from now until the end of the year can be key for your love life.

Cancer 22 June – 23 July

You could sense the effect of tomorrow's New Moon in your money zone today as a prompt to make changes that are overdue. However, this seems to be part of an overall shift that might enable you to make further strides. In fact, with Mars entering your lifestyle zone tomorrow and Saturn preparing to turn direct there soon, the coming weeks hold much promise.

Leo 24 July – 23 August

As Mars prepares to leave your family sector and move into your leisure zone, you may find that a domestic issue comes to the fore, perhaps bringing the chance to resolve it once and for all. If such a decision has been delayed, finally grappling with it may feel like quite a relief. Leo, and clear the way for other more expansive and risk taking moves to shape up.

Virgo 24 August – 23 September

The Moon's tie to both Uranus and Pluto suggests that certain people may be more difficult than usual, leading to potential delays. Even so, your horoscope suggests you can tap into a reservoir of strength, enabling you to stay fairly calm and upbeat. Moreover, an invite to a social event or a chance to liaise with a friend can also leave you much restored.

Libra 24 September – 23 October

The Moon at the top of your chart can encourage you to get into organisational mode and take stock of how you might remove any obstacles preventing you from sticking to your plans. However, one place to start might be with your to-do list, especially if you're lagging behind on certain essential tasks. Getting on top of such chores will probably see you feeling better.

Scorpio 24 October – 22 November

Although you won't want to get in the way of progress, a call to explore a new opening could clash with your agenda. However, tomorrow's New Moon in the most prominent of sectors brings an opportunity for a new phase regarding your goals and ambitions. See any new considerations as a way to compliment your plans – if you can be flexible.

Sagittarius 23 November – 21 December

There may be opportunities coming your way that are a result of sustained efforts made recently. However, other possibilities might arise as a result of a chance encounter. Both can be equally valuable and may be worthy of further investigation. Mind, you might want to leave your options open for another week or so, as new developments can change your plans.

Capricorn 22 December – 20 January

The Moon in your relationship zone links to Jupiter, so you may find that certain discussions could encourage travel plans or the idea of taking on a challenge that you and another might enjoy. If it's their suggestion you may need to think about it. Sharing ideas could be all it takes to spark extra motivation and excitement, even if not everyone shares your vibe.

Aquarius 21 January – 19 February

A lunar focus on your lifestyle sector can encourage you to consider whether your everyday routines are boosting your energy levels, or not. With edgy planetary aspects showing up, if you feel overwhelmed at all it might inspire you to reconsider your schedule and your plans. Look to try and delegate as much as you can, and lift any personal restrictions.

Pisces 20 February – 20 March

Although the present picture suggests you have a lot to contend with, you may find that others are more than willing to help out where necessary. Therefore, there's no need to feel burdened by too many tasks, as someone you know may be ready to step up to the plate. If this means that you can take a break and unwind a little, so much the better for you, Pisces.
