Horoscopes Tuesday 30th August 2016

Aries 21 March – 20 April

Venus glides home into Libra today, perfect for your relationships. In fact, as Venus continues to align with Mercury and Jupiter, opportunities for new developments seem readily available if you're willing to seek them out. Moreover, an Eclipse later in the week can coincide with a determination to overcome obstacles and make a long-term plan a real success.

Taurus 21 April – 21 May

As the lovely Venus sashays into your lifestyle sector, you may feel an urge to get back into balance regarding diet and wellness routines. With a recent heady focus on your leisure zone, it'd be no surprise if you found yourself indulging more than usual. Over this week you may want to address this issue. If your sweet tooth has been active, plain foods might help.

Gemini 22 May – 21 June

As Mercury, your ruler, turns retrograde from today, it does so in your home and family sector, making sterling aspects to Venus and Jupiter. In fact, the coming three weeks or so may bring a chance to reconsider an opportunity you might have turned down, or to restore a relationship affected by a misunderstanding. In both cases, a heart-to-heart chat could really help.

Cancer 22 June – 23 July

You may notice a key issue gaining in focus, particularly with a Solar Eclipse taking place in a couple of day's time. In fact, with a potent focus on your sector of talk and thought, and the Sun linking to Saturn and Neptune, a flash of insight could prove empowering. If any lack of progress has left you in the doldrums, a fresh perspective might help resolve this matter.

Leo 24 July – 23 August

As the planet of talk and thought flips backwards in your personal financial sector, the coming three weeks may need a degree of care where your money is concerned. Moreover, it might be helpful to hold back from purchasing big-ticket items until Mercury pushes forward again on September 21st. If you have no option though, be sure to keep receipts and paperwork.

Virgo 24 August – 23 September

There's a shift in the air as Venus eases into your money zone and Mercury spins backwards today. Furthermore, the week has other surprises with a Solar Eclipse in your sign showing up in a couple of day's time. The net effect of these influences suggests that despite any recent disappointments, your focus seems set on accomplishing a goal you've worked hard for.

Libra 24 September – 23 October

You may begin to feel more upbeat and creative as your personal planet, Venus, dances into your sign today. Her presence here encourages you to expand your social circle; with this approach further highlighted by Mars and Saturn in your communication zone making for some promising social events. A new relationship could prove supportive over the long-term.

Scorpio 24 October – 22 November

With the Sun in your social sector aligning with Neptune and Saturn, you may begin to get wise regarding someone's attitude, particularly if they've been taking advantage of you. A Solar Eclipse in the same zone in a couple of day's time, suggests this lunar phase could be the catalyst that encourages you to nip this and other uncaring actions in the bud, for good.

Sagittarius 23 November – 21 December

As Mercury rewinds in the topmost sector of your chart Archer, it continues to align with Venus in your sector of friendship. It seems the dividing line between a professional approach and a more relaxed attitude to relating could well blur. You and another may find you have a lot more in common other than the interest or job that originally brought you together.

Capricorn 22 December – 20 January

As Venus continues to sync with Mercury there may be plenty of opportunities to enjoy yourself in the company of friends.

Yet, with Mercury turning retrograde from today someone may get the wrong end of the stick, even believing that you have romantic feelings for them when you might in fact not. Either way, look to be as clear as possible around your intentions.

Aquarius 21 January – 19 February

Any plans may be subject to alterations over coming days and weeks. And as Mercury regresses in your sector of shared resources, financial matters could take longer to process too. The coming Solar Eclipse might also see you changing your mind regarding a money matter or a relationship issue, and as a result Aquarius, see you do something of an about turn.

Pisces 20 February – 20 March

Other people may seem to have more say in your affairs than you have, or at least this is the way it might appear. Mind, you may have a point. Your horoscope suggests you see these current potent influences in your sector of relating, as others showing their concern. If this does occasionally come across as meddling at times, look to say “thanks”, whilst reinforcing your need for boundaries.
