

Horoscopes Wednesday 11th May 2016

As the planet of talk and thought spins backwards and aligns with the powerful energies of Pluto, an exciting opportunity may come around again.

If we had considered it lost, then this may be a chance to get a second bite at the cherry. Progress can be slow, though, so patience may be required. For your FREE Daily Horoscope Wednesday 11th May 2016 please see below...

Horoscopes Wednesday 11th May 2016

Aries 21 March – 20 April

There's a shift from a chilled atmosphere to a more focused pace, which could mean rallying to a job that needs to be completed. To be more precise it may be a task that needs to be re-done or perhaps reviewed. However, this could turn out to your advantage, as information may come to light that changes your perspective, but can have a positive bearing on the outcome.

Taurus 21 April – 21 May

If something is worth striving for, then the current backdrop may be an invitation to channel your resources into a project or plan until it yields the desired outcome. However, the days ahead could spotlight a tendency to want to force results, even if things are already proceeding in the right direction. If this applies to you, do your level best not to do this, Taurus.

Gemini 22 May – 21 June

However it may appear on the surface, rest assured that there's a lot more going on behind the scenes. Things are changing, but like everything that goes through a transition – it can take time. Perhaps the biggest challenge over coming days may be resisting the urge to do something, such as rush a decision, make a phone call or leap into action – when waiting may be best.

Cancer 22 June – 23 July

You may find yourself corralled into doing what someone expects of you instead of what you want to do. The reason being that with both Mercury and Venus aligning with Pluto over coming days someone's possessive attitudes could stir you. However, this can be an opportunity to talk things through, and express your need for more space. Or will it be vice versa?

Leo 24 July – 23 August

Whatever the situation you're dealing with, you may get a better outcome if you speak to a decision maker. Anyone lower in the hierarchy may not have the clout to influence things in the way you need. You may also benefit from taking full control of a key issue rather than letting others handle it for you on your behalf. Your horoscope reveals you can steer things as you really require.

Virgo 24 August – 23 September

A sensitive lunar link with Mercury can be a reminder to speak the truth sparingly as someone close may feel more vulnerable than usual. Indeed, with the Moon also aligning with Uranus, your first impulse may be to say it like it is as a way of unburdening yourself, when the bigger picture reveals that rehearsing your words beforehand might be best for all concerned.

Libra 24 September – 23 October

Both thoughts and feelings may become more intense over the days ahead, which can make it harder to retain a diplomatic approach to certain matters or people. Even if you prefer one opinion or person over another, tact can prevent you from giving too much away. However, there are times when you can't avoid disclosing the reality – and this may be one of them.

Scorpio 24 October – 22 November

As all relationships are an investment of time and energy, the next few days can see you considering whether a new connection or collaboration is worthwhile entering into. With the focus becoming more intense you may feel you have no option but to go ahead. But before you do, it could be best to carefully consider the costs both financially and in terms of time.

Sagittarius 23 November – 21 December

The present blend of energies encourages you to get more active and enjoy greater exercise, whether this means a gentle walk or something more aerobic. Indeed, you may find this a refreshing break from thinking and planning, or wondering about the future, as it can give your mind a rest and be therapeutic. Gardening can also appeal at this time Sagittarius.

Capricorn 22 December – 20 January

Over the coming days it can be helpful to make your intentions clear regarding a certain relationship, otherwise it might never move forward, and could stay stuck in neutral. Although it can be difficult to confront such matters, doing so could relieve tension and enable a shift in attitude. The result may be a bond that can buzz with new energy and verve.

Aquarius 21 January – 19 February

As Mercury and Venus move to sync with Pluto in the more private areas of your chart, this can be an opportunity to take a closer look at key connections, especially any that need some special attention. These aspects can be helpful for spotlighting areas where feelings may be a little strained. A heart-to-heart may change the focus and allow for greater connectedness.

Pisces 20 February – 20 March

The present astrological scene indicates an opportunity to catch up with old friends, but also the chance to spend more time with people who you may not have seen so much of lately. If someone hints that they haven't heard from you in a while, then they could be missing your company. A warm gesture Pisces, may be a good way to show them that you still really care.
