Brian Galyon has been living off the grid full-time with his dog Sierra since 2015. In the summer he lives in the back of a 4x4 Toyota Tacoma pickup truck with a DIY slide-out extension, and in the winter he lives in a Big Horn III outfitter-style tent with a wood stove.

At the start of his journey, he was working odd-jobs as a ranch hand, landscaping, and doing trail work, but now he earns a living as a digital nomad with his YouTube channel, Off-Grid Backcountry Adventures.
