

Report Finds So-Called US War on Terror Has Displaced as Many as 59 Million People

The ongoing U.S. “war on terror” has forcibly displaced as many as 59 million people from just eight countries in the Middle East, Africa, and Asia since 2001, according to a new report published Tuesday by Brown University’s Costs of War Project. #waronterror