

Why Children Should Not Receive the COVID Shot

While benefits from COVID "vaccination" in children between the ages of 12 and 15 are rare and short-lived, side effects are common and long-term effects are completely unknown
#childrevaccine