

In an ‘Unprecedented’ Progress for Rights Japan Elects 2 Politicians With Disabilities

Two politicians living with disabilities were sworn into Japan’s parliament this week, which activists are celebrating as “unprecedented” progress for disability representation and rights in the country. #japan