

Clearing Clutter Opens the Mind

Whether in the kitchen, basement, yard or 'all of the above' in some way everyone has clutter and when it begins to rule over a certain rhythm in our lives it affects personal relationships and slows our ability to move forward. In essence, it closes us up instead of opening our hearts and minds to our dreams.