

The Great Reset Requires Great Propaganda and the Rejection of Logic and Rationality

By Dylan Charles | Waking Times

I'm infinitely fascinated by the mental gymnastics and head tricks the masses are employing in order to justify such widespread irrationality and illogic. In my practice as a self-mastery coach I help my clients to regain control of their minds and develop a natural immunity to the propaganda and conditioning out there, and I want you to know all the dirty tricks that are being employed to manufacture obedience in this global elite power grab.

In order to understand what's really happening, you need to understand what people are really being asked to do. This is not about masks, social distancing, or even vaccines. It is much, much bigger than that. Journalist Jon Rappaport puts it rather succinctly:

I want to emphasize the underlying propaganda message. It's very important to understand that message:

"As more and more people are unable and unwilling to employ logic and rationality, those qualities diminish in importance, and you should abandon them because...they don't serve you. They aren't useful." ~Jon Rappoport

You're being coaxed and coerced into denouncing logic and rationality, but why?

"We need enormous trust between the private sector and the public sector for this to actually work. That trust is hard to come by."~Ajay Banga, former CEO of Mastercard Trust in the global governance scheme is wholly dependent on the abandonment of logic and rationality. And in order to manufacture this kind of trust, The World Economic Forum and its cohorts are creating top-level propaganda to convince you that authoritarianism is humanitarianism. It is not.

Consider this recent sales pitch for 'The Great Reset,' or as we used to call it, The New World Order. In it, the WEF acknowledges the fact that many people see a conspiracy afoot, but the WEF tries to soothe the masses by talking down to them.

From the description for this video on YouTube:

"The pandemic has radically changed the world as we know it, and the actions we take today, as we work to recover, will define our generation. It's why the World Economic Forum is calling for a new form of capitalism, one that puts people and planet first, as we come together to rebuild the world after COVID-19."

In other words, thanks to the pandemic scaring the daylights out of all you TV watchers out there, the WEF is now ready to invade every aspect of your life.

Vigilant Citizen describes this a bit:

“Usually, PR efforts by elite organizations hide their true intentions with flowery words and meaningless sentences. But this thing is blatant.

Of course, it has to start with the elite’s complete obsession with seeing the entire world wearing masks. They’re particularly excited when children wear them.

Then, we hear UN Secretary-General, Antonio Guterres describing the pandemic as an “opportunity”.

Nobody (except for the elite) is calling for a Great Reset. Everybody (except for the elite) is calling for the complete restoration of freedoms.

Then, in a bizarre twist, the narrator talks about how the Great Reset sounds like a conspiracy.

“Great Reset? That sounds more like buzzword bingo masking some nefarious plan for world domination”.

While these words are uttered, powerful symbols are displayed.” ~ Vigilant Citizen

Be sure to read the rest of Vigilant Citizen’s analysis of this video, here.

Here’s another video, this time from the British Royal Family declaring the need for a paradigm shift. Actually, Prince Charles takes it all the way, calling for a ‘Global Revolution.’

Again, the major theme is that the pandemic was a fluke event, but oh thank heaven, it’s just the kind of opportunity we need in order to bring the entire world under the thumb of global elite-managed socialism.

“Changing our current trajectory will require bold and imaginative action together with determination and decisive leadership. In order to secure our future and to prosper we need to evolve our economic model, putting people and planets at the heart of global value creation. If there is one critical lesson we have to learn from this crisis, we need to put nature at the heart of how we operate... We need nothing short of a paradigm shift, one that inspires action at revolutionary levels and pace. We simply cannot waste any more time. The only limit is our willingness to act, and the time to act is now.” ~Prince Charles

Pat attention folks, the pandemic is being used as the catalyst to wage a global revolution against national sovereignty, individual rights, and health and economic freedom.

Propaganda for the Great Reset aims at building trust in the WEF and other institutions by presenting complex governance schemes in a dumbed-down, simplistic way that the masses can digest. It subtly uses fear and subliminal messaging to create a hierarchy in society, programming you to believe in the savior class of elite rulers and complicit celebrities who constantly beat you down with messages of insecurity and alarm.

In a video from last year which was posted directly on the WEF website, they make it extremely simple to understand what they've got in store for you. In fact, the video is so blatantly anti-individual and pro-socialist that it's actually scrubbed from the WEF site and from YouTube, as so many people find the ideas presented here to be abhorrent.

The message is '8 Predictions for 2030,' which includes gems like...

"You'll own nothing. And be you'll be happy."

"You'll eat much less meat. An occasional treat. Not a staple. For the good of the environment and our health."

"There will be a global price on carbon."

In other words, The Great Reset is a global power grab, and you, 'not we,' will have lots of new rules to comply with, or else you'll face some kind of new school high-tech punishment for disobedience.

Final Thoughts

If you're the type of person that needs this kind of micromanagement of your personal affairs, and if you're the type who fancies the idea of having unelected, filthy rich European bureaucrats from the WHO, IMF, WEF, OECD, the World Bank, and whatever else dictating your life, then the new normal is right up your alley.

If you're like me, however, and you don't think you were born on this planet to serve as slaves for a breakaway class of insanely rich control freaks, then you need to make sure that you're taking proper countermeasures to protect the sovereignty of your mind. You must become propaganda proof. When you do so, you'll find that there is so much more potential in your own life, just waiting to be unlocked and put into service for your community, your family, and your happiness. I teach men and women the skills of self-mastery because the one thing the elites fear more than anything else is a population of free-thinking, prosperous individuals who have absolutely no need for external control.
