

MSG is Being Used as One of the Ingredients in Vaccines

MSG, a taste-enhancing food additive, is also an ingredient in five vaccines recommended by the CDC. MSG is used as a stabilizer in vaccines. Studies have shown that MSG can injure brain neurons.