

Uranus Retrograde 2020 + Zodiac Forecasts

Restless Uranus is now Retrograde in Taurus and continues to be so until January 14th 2021. Why is this important? Well, the last sustained period of world turbulence occurred 84 years ago when Uranus passed through Taurus.

Uranus affects our desire for freedom, independence, rebellion against restrictions or can lead to sudden changes and alterations or radical belief systems. In the Fixed Earth Sign of Taurus, Uranus is in its Fall, so not the best location as its desire for change battles with Taurus's preference for stability.

Also Taurus governs our personal values, finances and the things we love to consume. With Covid 19 affecting many people's income, and the uncertainty this is generating Uranus in Taurus is essential to understand.
