

Consider Pediatric Cleft Lip Surgery For Your Child for Their Long-Term Development

A cleft lip is a condition that occurs when the lip did not merge completely before the birth of such a child. This can be treated through pediatric cleft lip surgery.