

The 5D Shift Goes Parabolic: Time for the Heavenly Ascension

We're at the point in the shift where the upward curve goes parabolic. Imagine you've reached Everest Spiritual Base Camp – now it's time to begin the real climb. Everything you've done thus far has prepared you for this point. You look up, take a deep breath and step out. Or rather step deeper in. Each day must consist now of the inner climb: in your meditation practice, in aligned diet, nature, bodywork. It's all about integration and every single moment offers that tremendous opportunity for your spiritual mastery.

Gaia Shifts Through 5D Gears

Let's be clear, if you're not climbing then you're either standing still or slip-sliding backward. Now is not the time to be fooling yourself. We don't have that luxury.

Gaia is gearing up. You can clearly see it with the volcanoes, earthquakes and storms building around the globe. But this has precious little to do with manmade climate change as the controllers of society would position. The great galactic cog has turned: cosmic radiation is streaming into the solar system at a time when the Solar Logos is lowering his magnetic shield. Gaia is doing the same, as we move inexorably towards the completion of the Pole Shift.

The Stargates are Opening for DIVINICUS

The Stargates are opening as our heavenly ET helpers progressively strip out the 4D technology in the ether. If you're tuning into the field, the REAL source of planetary news, then you'll feel the massive shifts and unwindings that are taking place. There are no two ways about it: you're either in the truth of it or not. There's no place for just dipping your toes in the water at this juncture. It's high time to dive into the center stream.

Does this all sound full-on?!

It's meant to! It's necessary to inspire a deepening of spiritual commitment now. It's necessary for the climb to begin. You've done the practice. Now's time for the real transition: the forging of the Merkabah, your divine new DIVINICUS form leading into the New 5D Paradigm, anytime between now and the culminating event, where the sun goes dark for 3 days before firing the Solar Nova Trigger.

For those tuning into the quantum field, the dreamstate before reality crystallises, you'll be well aligned with what unfolds. The physical body is becoming progressively more wave like. The soul will be downloading from the huge influx of energy. You'll be blissed, ecstatic, uplifted, reborn. This is what awaits us at the Everest Summit.

Becoming the Divine Co-Creator

So forge on my friends. Dig in. Let every moment become that of transcendence. You're walking through the old 3D/4D construct, with its shenanigans and craziness. But only pay attention to what truly affects you or binds you in karmically. Unwind out – then you've dispensed with that illusionary charade, you've stripped off that veil.

Keep centering in the truth of the moment and equalising with it so you can expand out – you're becoming the dream in every given moment, that which SHAPES the moment, for now you're becoming the divine co-creator.

And it's okay to pause as well. This is tiring work. Even meditation can be draining as you're deepening your focus through the layers, opening new channels, and downloading light. So it's fine at times to take your foot off the gas pedal too. Take some well-earned comfort – some of your favorite soul food, connection with kindreds, a night cozied up with an inspiring movie. Let your rest become purposeful deep rest, ready for the next phase of the climb to begin again.

The 5D Being – our Daily Bread

Each unfolding, each unwinding brings you a step further. But it's not about waiting for the end Event. It's a paradox: we know it's coming, there is something to move towards, BUT – it's each heavenly step in that direction which counts.

You're doing the work where each shift brings a magnificent benefit. It's not measured in terms of some physical outcome in the 3D. Things will be transforming, yes, but what this is about, is the forging and integration of soul.

You witness it in the interrelation of reality, the patterning: in signs and synchronicity, in numerology, nature, and sacred geometry – this is the weaving landscape that creates life in 5D, a life that is truly worth living.

This is the daily bread of DIVINICUS the 5D Being, as she's breathed into life within the Galactic Family of Light. This is the heavenly call right now.

The spiritual master in you is beckoning. Can you hear her call from across the great divide?
